Video Lesson Plan

Color Your World with Kindness

For lesson plans, a classroom video, bulletin board kit and student activities see our original lesson plan unit Preventing Bullying available at: www.thenedshow.com/bullying

6. Describe the relationship between the person who acts kindly and the person who receives kindness, from each scenario in the video.

The boy and girl were probably students at same school and knew each other – they were sitting next to each other at lunch. Others did not seem to even know each other.

7. Should we only be kind to kids we know? Why or why not? How could it help make our school a safer place if more kids were kind to others? Teacher Note: Be prepared to discuss “stranger danger” and only doing acts of kindness to strangers in the presence of a safe adult.

8. Should we be kind to kids at school who are unkind to us? What about being kind to a bully?

9. What might happen if everyone was kind to the school bully? Do you believe that kindness has the power to change how a bully feels and acts?

Activities

More than Nice!

Brainstorm a list of positive, “feel good” words appropriate for the age of your students. Create a class word chart so that students have multiple word choices to use when talking and writing about positive feelings. Suggest older students create their own wordle (see the free word cloud generator at www.wordle.net).

Pay It Forward

What can you do to keep kindness going? Kindness has the power to change how people feel, think, and treat others. Try being kind to someone who has been unkind to you and see where it goes. Record each act on the printable provided.

Additional Bullying Prevention Support

Have a discussion with your students about NEVER GIVING UP on helping their school to be safe. ENCOURAGE them to be Upstanders when they see unkind acts and DO THEIR BEST to be kind to all kids - even a bully. Could a simple act of kindness have an impact on how a bully thinks, speaks, and acts? What if all kids in the school were kind to the bully?
