- Roar with laughter: loud sound caused by people laughing together

Note to teachers: If your students are not familiar with Growth Mindset vs. Fixed Mindset, we encourage you to first use NED’s How to Grow a Brain introductory lesson to build background.

Beatrice has never made a mistake. She never forgets to feed her hamster, she never wears mismatched socks and she never forgets her homework. After her “almost mistake,” Beatrice is worried about messing up and making a mistake at the school talent show. This heartwarming story will help any perfectionist in your class understand the importance of learning from mistakes and having fun in the process.

Before Reading: Discuss Starters

1. What is a mistake?
   - To understand or do something wrong, not correct, something happens not the way you wanted it to.

2. How do you feel when you make a mistake?

3. What mistakes have you made today?
   - Consider sharing a mistake that you made today so students can feel safe to share their mistakes.

4. Do you know anyone who has never made a mistake? Would it be easy to never make a mistake?

5. When could it be good to make a mistake?
   - Encourage students to talk about times that maybe they learned something from their mistakes or laughed after a mistake.

Before Reading: Discuss Starters

1. What happens each day when Beatrice leaves her home? Why?
   Her fans greet her. They ask if she remembered to do everything. Since she was perfect - and not many people are - they treated her like a rock star with a talent far better than others.

2. What happened when Beatrice almost made her first mistake on the cooking team?
   Her legs slipped out from under her and the eggs went flying. What would have happened if she DID make a mistake and didn’t catch the eggs? They would have fallen and broken. She would have had to clean up and get 4 more eggs.

3. How did Beatrice react when Millie made a mistake and dropped a piece of rhubarb? How was she like NED? Beatrice told Millie not to mention it, not to worry—it was no big deal. She wasn’t upset, she didn’t make fun of her even though she made a mistake. Beatrice was like NED - an encourager of others who make mistakes.

4. What did Beatrice do after she almost made a mistake? Is this a fixed mindset or growth mindset? What could she have done differently to have a growth mindset?
   She couldn’t stop thinking about what almost happened. She didn’t join her friends skating, didn’t eat, didn’t smile. She had a fixed mindset. A growth mindset would let her say "mistakes aren’t bad—they are part of learning. I will keep trying and see what I can learn next time.”

5. Beatrice felt her stomach jumping around inside her before the talent show. What does that mean? Have you ever felt like that?
   She was nervous – felt like butterflies, tummy upset. Encourage students to share stories.

6. What mistake did Beatrice make in the talent show? She grabbed the pepper shaker instead of the salt and it made Humbert the hamster sneeze. The sneeze startled him and he popped the water balloon which dumped everything on top of Beatrice’s head. How did Beatrice feel when she made her first mistake? At first she froze (stood very still). She almost cried and wanted to run off the stage. How did her feelings change? When she saw the soaked hamster, she giggled, then chuckled and then laughed.

7. How did the audience react to Beatrice’s mistake during the talent show? If NED were in the audience, how would he have reacted?
   At first, the crowd was stunned – sat silently and stared. They couldn’t believe that she made a mistake. That was not very encouraging, but when the crowd heard Beatrice giggle – they giggled too! NED would have encouraged Beatrice from the beginning.

8. Why did Beatrice sleep better than she ever had the night after the talent show?
   She was no longer stressed about having to be perfect all the time – she had made her first mistake and realized it was okay.

9. Why were there no fans outside her house at the end of the story?
   Beatrice was no longer the ONLY girl who had never made a mistake. Everyone makes mistakes.

10. What did Beatrice do after she realized that she wasn’t the girl who never made a mistake?
    She wore different socks, put PB&J on the outside of bread, made messes, skated and fell. Why could she do those things now? She laughed as she took new chances and tried new things because she didn’t have to worry about never making a mistake.
Writing Prompts

Use the printable tracing and colour sheet with the message “Do your best and your best will get better.”

Describe a mistake you’ve made and what you have learned because you never gave up.

Activities

Choose your own mindset adventure: Write your own story with a character who faces a challenge. Write two different endings – one where main character has a fixed mindset and the other with a growth mindset.

Self-Talk Bookmark: Make yourself a bookmark and list three positive things you can tell yourself that will help you never give up.

Home Connection

Notes of Encouragement from Parents to Children

Make this printable available for parents in your newsletter or website, or handout at parent conferences. Encourage parents to give to children at home or in their lunches.
